18,000 SUBSCRIBERS WANTED FOR WAR CHEST

Of These One Half Are Expected in This City---County Districts Being Organized By Flying Squadron to Furnish the Other 9,000.

Nine thousand subscribers is Kingston's War Chest quota. The campaign committee announced this morning that a minimum of 9,000 subscribers will be needed in Kingston, and it hopes to secure another 9,000 in the rest of Ulster county, to assure the $350,000 which is necessary to fill Ulster County War Chest during the canvass of November 11 to 18. There is intensive activity today in building up the organization of workers necessary for the speedy and effective accomplishment of this task.

Three high-powered automobiles went out this morning to cover every election district in Ulster county outside of Kingston and the larger villages. One car carried D. N. Mathews, chairman of the township subscribers' committee, Herbert Carl and Ralph Cohen into northern Ulster; one car bound for southern Ulster carried John D. Schoonmaker, Joseph M Fowler and Harry P Dodge, while Frank Coykendall and J. Graham Rose went into central Ulster.

This automobile "flying squadron" of the township subscribers committee, is charged with the duty of recruiting a captain in each election district. This captain must organize by Saturday of this week his team of workers, which will canvass every person in the election district during the campaign. The township subscribers committee has complete confidence in the ability of this "flying squadron" to build up as strong a canvassing organization as has ever been known in the history of war chests in this country.

The strength of this organization will be matched by that of the Kingston city committee. Mayor Canfield, who is chairman of this committee, has asked Chairman William H. Van Slyke of the industrial committee; Chairman Samuel M. Watts of the trade committee and Chairman Frank P. Messinger of the house to house committee to report at the campaign headquarters, Y. M. C. A. this evening at 8 o'clock accompanied by the captains of their teams. Complete plans for the Kingston city canvass will be made at this meeting and team workers will be recruited at once.

Every person in the city will be reached through the canvass of the Kingston city committee. The task of securing 9,000 subscribers as Kingston's share of the $350,000 of the War Chest fund will be met by committees and teams built up from the nucleus of veteran campaign workers tested and skilled through the American Red Cross, Liberty Loan, Knights of Columbus, Y. M. C. A. and other campaigns in which Kingston has invariably gone successfully "over the top."

The business-like nature of the War Chest movement was evidenced last night at the meeting of the Records Committee, of which John E. Mahar is chairman. Ulster county will not repeat the mistake made in War Chest campaigns in a number of other places. At the very beginning of the War Chest campaign, while the canvassing organization is still in the initial stages of its construction, the Record Committee is already planning a permanent record and collection system for the War Chest Association, so that the campaign records and cards will fit into permanent records without the slightest confusion or waste of energy. A simple but carefully devised plan for the keeping of records and handling of collections is being worked out. This forehanded action on the part of the Records Committee will undoubtedly make it possible for Ulster county to equal or possibly even surpass the results secured in the best organized war chest associations.

The Albany War Chest has already collected more than $500,000 at its permanent office in the Albany Chamber of Commerce rooms, with practically no special stimulation of collections and at an expense which is less than the current interest of the War Chest fund. This means, of course, that the Albany War Chest Association has available for distribution more than one hundred cents of every dollar collected.

War Work First.

The need for co-operation in the task of filling Ulster county's $350,000 War Chest, will make it necessary greatly to reduce the normal activities of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce during the next three weeks. In accordance with a resolution of the Board of directors, placing the services of the secretary and the office of the Chamber of Commerce at the disposal of the War Chest Association, Secretary Hudson is giving most of his time to his work as chairman of the War Chest Publicity Committee. The regular work of the chamber's office and committees will be reduced to the lowest possible minimum until the raising of the War Chest fund has been successfully completed.

President Joseph M. Herbert of the Chamber of Commerce is chairman of the executive committee of the War Chest campaign. Director Charles R. O'Connor is chairman of the War Chest administration expense committee. Director W. C. Kingman is chairman of the publicity ways and means committee. All the chamber's directors and the great majority of its members are serving as chairmen or members of War Chest campaign committees, or as workers of the various teams.

The Chamber of Commerce office will assist Chairman William H. Van Slyke in handling the clerical work of the War Chest industrial committee, which will canvass Kingston factories and shipyards.

FREEMAN BETTER THAN HOME LETTERS

It "Keeps the Home Fires Burning" For Our Boys in France—Pleasure of Meeting a New York Man—Disgusted With Safe Job.

Camp de Souge, A. P. O. 705, Am. Ex Force, Sunday, October 6, 1918.—Last Friday I received five letters from home, some as late as September 9. All were very interesting and best of all I received half a dozen copies of The Freeman. If all the boys over here could receive a home paper it would do much toward "Keeping the homes fires burning" for them. The column of addresses of the boys "over here" is one of the best things you could do. We all have friends who have been called since we left the U. S. and we have lost track of them. Only this evening I clipped a couple of addresses of boys in the F A, who may possibly come here for their final training. If they do I can look up the regiment when it comes in and possibly get some interesting news.

Only the other night I made a run of 60 miles to one of our big depots for supplies and found a Plattsburg fellow, who had been with the 27th Division at Camp Wadsworth. Of course, I did not know him personally, but he was one of "the boys" from New York and knew a bit of the gossip from Wadsworth. If a total stranger from "somewhere in New York" can give you news, think what meeting a fellow from your home town would be. Our trip was made via auto, leaving after completing our day's work here in camp. The convoy, in charge of a transportation sergeant, passed through some great country before it grew too dark to hide the scenery. I got back in a genuine rain storm and made two hours of sleep before "turning to" for work again. But the trip was worth it.

Some people say France can't compare with the U. S. Taken as a whole I agree, but where in the U. S. can you find such a variety of scenery in so few square miles. The thing which impresses me is the age and sort of settled atmosphere which surrounds everything over here. The whole country seems to me to have such a quiet, dignified spirit, and still inside this covering of quiet is the liveliest, most enthusiastic of all nations. People, who have gained their knowledge of Europe and France from books, say "See America first," and I agree, but then "see Europe after" also. I am one who will return some day to France when peace comes, and I won't be alone, for there are many of the boys with the same idea. A few months spent in France then won't be wasted. I now understand why so many people came to Europe for a vacation, in spite of all that America holds in the way of beauty and scenery. It is different that is all.

I see Mr. Eltinge is coming to France as a "Y" worker. I am glad to hear this, for now that so many of the men come under the new draft age they will need good, faithful workers to replace those who will go into active service. Not only is Mr. Eltinge doing "his bit," but he will make good as a worker. I know him and he is the kind we need.

Every time I receive news from the boys at the front I get disgusted with myself. So many of my friends are up there "going over the top" and me right here for nearly a year, never getting any nearer the real thing. I am not complaining of my lot, someone must be here, but gee, how I would like to get a chance to relieve someone up there on the line.

How do you like the news of late? Remember what Dr. Chandler said, "You can make a damn good soldier out of an American in six months." Well, I guess you can, judging from the samples we have over here.

I have just been figuring up. I ate Christmas dinner last year in France. I expect to eat this one here, but the next one I eat at Kingston, N. Y. Do you think I will?

You speak in your letter of the change about New York. Yes, I'll bet there is a great change all right, not only in the city but I'll bet the harbor is full of shipping too, and a pretty lively place.

By now, old King Frost has nipped things, I presume. It has been cold enough to freeze ice here a couple of mornings in exposed places and things have begun to put on a brown color, so winter is not far off.

Give my regards to all the folks and for now fnis.

HOW KINGSTON BOYS WENT OVER THE TOP

David Markson Tells of Fighting in the Argonne Forest in Which National Army Men Defeated Superior Force of Germans.

The following letter from a former Freeman employe, who is a member of the 306th Infantry, fighting in the Argonne Forest, has been received by President James E. Connelly, of The Freeman Social Club:

Knights of Columbus Overseas Service.

On Active Service with American Expeditionary Forces, Oct 6, 1918.

Dear Jim,

Just six months ago today, we left the dear old states for France and those six months seem like six years. In a few days we will plant on the left sleeve of our blouses our first gold chevron.

Last week we started a drive in this sector, which is full of forests. We took the Hun by complete surprise, for the only fighting done here was at the beginning of the war, and no American soldiers were known to be here. At two o'clock morning the artillery preparation began, making a noise which was almost deafening. At 6 o'clock we went over the top, having with us gangs of engineers, who under the command of Sergeant "Bill" Rodell and Joe Tobesky, of Kingston, cut barbed wire entanglements, and who were ready to explode whatever of treacherous mines might lie in waiting. The first prisoners we captured numbered three, and no sooner did we take them into tow when some one shouted, "Here's five more." A few minutes later the company on our right captured two machine guns and twenty prisoners, and soon large numbers of them were making to the rear. Some of the prisoners were caught in dug-outs, some were caught without offering any resistance, while machine gunners made a tough resistance. The Germans certainly had been living in luxury here, for in many of the dugouts, we came across cigars, cigarettes, wine, etc., it being necessary to leave these behind because we had advanced so quickly. On each day our objectives were reached, and I think we forced them to retreat about 16 kilos. (10 miles). I don't know the number of prisoners, machine guns, etc., captured, but it is indeed large.

One morning we ran into a nest of machine guns covering the retreat of the main body. Here we were forced to call into play every trick we knew about the game. Although their infantry greatly outnumbered ours, we gave them an awful beating, getting three of theirs to every one of ours. As a result of the battle, which lasted 3½ hours, many of our fellows have been recommended for D. S. C. It was indeed a fierce engagement, for they were told to hold their positions at all costs. But I can assure you that they didn't hold it as long as they cared to.

A couple hundred yards from my tent, one of our big guns is continually pounding away at the enemy, and every time it fires, the whole ground shakes. In fact this place is full of artillery. One thing which greatly pleases us now, is the fine support given us by our aeroplanes. When we first went into action but few American aeroplanes could be seen, but now there seems to be thousands of them.

No doubt the old town will go "over the top" again in the present Liberty Loan Drive.

Heard a few weeks ago that no newspapers were to be sent over here anymore. We don't know whether this is true or not, but judging by the fact that no newspapers have been received in the past few weeks it must be so. Jim, send me a few clippings from The Freeman every once in a while. Do you ever hear from any of the other fellows who worked for The Freeman? I wrote to Tommy, but have received no answer yet. Best regards to all.

Your friend,
DAVID MARKSON,
1st Class Private.

PEACE TERMS MADE KNOWN VERY SOON

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

London, Oct. 30.—The terms upon which Germany can have an armistice and also peace probably will be made known very soon. The terms have been agreed upon by the Versailles inter-Allied war council, it was learned here today.

The peace and armistice terms will be issued simultaneously. The peace conditions, it is understood, will be in a little different form than has generally been believed.

London believes Germany undoubtedly will accept both the armistice and peace terms. It is known that Germany really has been trying to stop the operations of her U-boats.

Austria is expected to accept any terms that are offered her. The fact that the Czecho-Slavs and the Jugo-Slavs control Austria's food supply has played a large part in forcing the capitulation of Germany's chief ally. Austria, it is believed, will quickly accept whatever armistice terms are demanded, in an effort to hurry peace.

Coal Mines Ordered Closed.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, Oct. 30.—The fuel administration has issued orders to thirteen coal mines prohibiting them from either shipping or mining any coal, making a total of 39 mines closed since the administration inaugurated its clean coal program. These orders were issued following reports from inspectors, that either the coal from the mine was of such poor quality as to be useless, or the producers were not properly preparing the coal by cleaning it before shipment.

GEORGE SCHICK HIT IN SHOULDER

GEORGE H. SCHICK.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Schick of 34 Davis street, Wilbur, received a postal from their son, George, this morning saying that in the last big drive he was in he got slightly wounded in the left shoulder and was sent to a hospital in England. Mr. Schick left here with Company M, last year and was later transferred to Co. B, 107th U. S Infantry. In his last letter he said he was 40 yards from the Hun trenches at an advanced post.

WAR AT A GLANCE

Austro-Hungarian troops in Italy are rapidly being rolled back towards the Austrian frontier over a front of more than forty miles.

American troops from Ohio are taking part in the battle and crossed the Piave to head off the fleeing enemy.

It was unofficially estimated today that the advance had reached ten miles and the prisoners number between 20,000 and 25,000. One hundred and fifty guns have been taken from the Austro-Hungarians, some of which are now in action against their former owners.

More than 100 Italian villages east of the Piave river have been liberated from alien domination.

Swift progress is being made by the Allies over the whole front, but especially in the district east of the Monticano river.

The Italians have captured Monte Pinar and Monte Perlo, two fortified mountains of great strategic importance. Both command wide stretches of ground.

Dramatic scenes were witnessed when King Victor Emmanuel crossed the Piave river with his advancing soldiers. Even Austro-Hungarian prisoners cheered.

So fast have the Allies gone forward that the Austro-Hungarians are threatened with absolute rout.

The bombardment of Hungary, which may be the prelude to invasion, has commenced on the Danube. Allied guns are now firing on Austro-Hungarian positions across the stream at the Iron Gate, where the river bends and begins to form part of the boundary between Hungary and Rumania.

With the Allies driving back the Austro-Hungarians on the Italian front and hammering away at the gates of Hungary on the Balkan front the dual monaarchy finds itself in the worst military plight since the beginning of the war. The seriousness of Austria's condition is intensified by political unrest.

A temporary lull has settled down on the British front but the French are steadily advancing against stubborn resistance between the Oise and Aisne rivers.

The Americans are pounding German lines of communication with their big guns and fine weather north of Verdun has given rise to intense air fighting.

Since August 8 the British armies in France and Belgium have captured 140,000 prisoners and 1,400 guns, it was estimated today. Since September 28 the British have captured 30,000 prisoners and 500 guns in Belgium alone.

The Turks are rapidly quitting Russian territory in the Caucasus. They have evacuated Baku a great oil Shipping center on the Caspian sea, without a fight.

AUSTRIAN SURRENDER UP TO VERSAILLES COUNCIL

Entire Matter Passed On to Supreme War Council, Whose Decision President Wilson Will Obey in Both Austrian and German Peace Overtures.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, Oct. 10.—Austria's acceptance of President Wilson's condition for the entry of the negotiations for an armistice and peace, delivered to the state department late yesterday, will be forwarded at once to the supreme war council now sitting at Versailles. It will be on the cables before night, it is understood.

This action was decided on following conferences between President Wilson and Secretary of State Lansing. The president is understood to have taken the position that, inasmuch as the note followed the same general lines as the German communication now before the Versailles conference, it should be considered by that body immediately.

The president is expected to receive the decision of the Versailles council on the German communication before the end of this week. On its receipt he will forward it to Berlin and will thus pass the issue of whether the war is to end or whether the fighting will continue until Germany is completely crushed squarely up to the German government.

It can be stated on authority that so far as the president is concerned, he will completely endorse all demands that are made by the military advisers at Versailles council designed to guarantee that Germany will keep all pledges made. The president, it is understood, made it very plain to the cabinet when the entire situation was under discussion that he believed "Germany's teeth must be drawn," and she made submissive to any and all demands that are made upon her.

Officials today had no information regarding whether the armistice conditions would be accompanied by an outline of the peace terms that Germany will be forced to accept. The majority of officials here were inclined to hope that this would be done. They explained that, inasmuch as Germany must in effect surrender unconditionally to secure an armistice, she might just as well know what she will have to do to get peace.

In diplomatic quarters here officials are inclined to believe that to make public general peace terms at once would prove a winning card in Germany. It would disarm the military party, they say, and frustrate their desires to reorganize the people again behind a program calling for "defense to the last." However, it is understood that this question now is under consideration at Versailles and until that body has carefully considered what it should do it will be impossible to forecast the decision.

24,000 NEW YORKMEN CALLED NEXT MONTH

Governor Whitman was called upon Tuesday to provide 24,000 additional men from New York state for immediate military service. The governor placed the machinery for furnishing this additional quota in operation upon the receipt of a telegram from Provost Marshal-General Crowder.

When the new soldiers, picked from the recent registrants between the ages of 19 and 37, leave for the Federal cantonments on or before November 11 the state will have approximately 375,000 men in the Federal service. Governor Whitman was in communication with Major F. S. Hutchinson, the Federal officer in charge of the selective draft, and later wired Washington that New York would be prompt in responding to this latest call. The proportion that each district will be required to provide to meet the new quota will be announced shortly.

The provost marshal-general orders the induction into the Federal service of the additional men to be completed during the five day period beginning November 11 for assignment to Federal camps as follows: 15,000 for Camp Humphreys, Accotink, Va.; 3,000 for Camp Forest, Lytle, Ga.; 800 for Fort Totten, N. Y.; 800 for Fort H. G. Wright, N. Y., and 4,032 for Garden City, L. I.

In the three day period beginning November 19 entrainment will be completed for 406 colored men for Camp Dix, Wrightstown, N. J.

MANY KILLED IN BUDAPEST RIOTING

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Copenhagen, Oct. 30.—Rioting, in which many persons are already reported to have been killed, is continuing at Budapest, said a dispatch from that city today. A general labor revolt is imminent.

Bayonets and machine guns are being used in the fighting.

ALLIED ARTILLERY BOMBARDS HUNGARY

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

London, Oct. 30.—Allied artillery has begun to bombard Hungary.

The Allies have reached the Iron Gate on the Danube river and are throwing shells across the stream against Hungarian positions on the northern bank.

RED CROSS CALLS FOR NURSES' AIDS

The Red Cross has issued a call for nurses' aids for service overseas, the need being urgent. In order to qualify for such service a woman must be between the ages of 25 and 45 years old, and must have successfully passed the examination in the Red Cross course of elementary hygiene and home nursing and have had a month's hospital experience. It is expected that arrangements can be made at either hospitals in this city, for those who have had or will take the necessary courses to have the hospital experience required. So much for the requirements of those who will serve their country by going overseas as soon as prepared, to help care for our wounded men "over there." Now as to the privileges. When fully qualified for the overseas service, the nurses's aids will receive $30 a month, with maintenance or an allowance which will correspond in amount to the maintenance.

All women in this city or county willing to undertake this work, may at once register for overseas service, by calling up the Red Cross Headquarters and giving their names and addresses—the telephone call being 1619—and they will be promptly notified when the classes to be formed are ready to begin work.

OHIO TROOPS WITH ITALIANS

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

London, Oct. 30—American troops from Ohio already are taking part in the great battle raging on the Italian front, in which the Allies have progressed ten miles over a forty-mile front, said a Milan dispatch to the Telegraph today.

The offensive is progressing rapidly and many villages have been liberated.

When King Victor Emmanuel crossed the Piave river with his soldiers he was cheered by the Allied troops and the Austrian prisoners that were passing to the rear. The Italians are now less than ten miles from Vitorio, the chief Austrian base.

Monte Pinar and Monte Perlo, two heights of great strategic importance, have been captured by the Allies.

The Stroller Hears That Epidemic of Small Flies That Infest the City is a Sign of Warm Weather.

"They are a darn nuisance," muttered the busy barber as he picked a fly out of the lather he had just applied to a customer's face, and then resumed operations. Said he: "There is no use talking you get rid of one epidemic and then another follows on its heels, and this one of the measly little flies is enough to make an honest man swear."

"I wonder where they all come from," said the customer, referring to the little flies which have been infesting the air about the city for several days past.

"You got me," replied the barber, busy plying the brush, "but I heard some say that it is a sign of more warm weather. We won't kick on the warm weather coming, but it certainly ain't a bit pleasant to have a lot of the flies get in your nose and mouth when you walk along the street, and if you leave the windows open they get in on the table and in the food."

Talking about the weather, many who had started the heaters have allowed them to go out as it was too nice weather to burn coal, with coal bringing $9 a ton.

But to return to the busy barber, who like all barbers, continued the conversation while at work "There is one side of the influenza epidemic that some people don't realize," said he, "and that is the fact that the insurance companies must have been hit pretty heavy, for nowadays there is hardly a person who does not carry insurance in some form or another. They tell me that some of the insurance companies have been so swamped with death claims that it takes a good while before the claims can be paid."

WILD WEST ACTOR CAPTURES VILLAGE

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 29.—(Night.)—Captain Frank Marson Williams, of Florida, and an American sergeant, practically captured the important village of St. Juvin without any other aid.

Captain Williams used a rifle taken from a German while the sergeant manned a machine gun. They held the place against all attacks.

Captain Williams, who is a dead shot and a former member of a "wild west" show, had passed to the north of Juvin while the Boches were still holding out in the place. He had just emerged from a wood to reconnoitre machine gun positions when he saw five Germans carrying off an American prisoner.

The captive called for help and Captain Williams attacked the Boches, killing three of them outright. He throttled the fourth, taking his rifle away from him while the fifth escaped.

The Germans started to evacuate Juvin, leaving by the western side. At the same time a force of about sixty or seventy approached from the north with the intention of reinforcing the German garrison in the village.

Captain Williams, with the German rifle, picked off the leader of the reinforcements and quickly shot three others, whereupon the rest of the Boches scattered to cover in the brush.

At the same time a sergeant, who had come up through the eastern side of the village with a light machine gun, joined the intrepid captain.

As the Germans in the western part of the village again started to escape the machine gun was turned against their only exit. The Boches came out with uplifted hands and were sent rearward.

The reinforcements again formed to attack and descended from a low hill. The captain set up the machine gun in the main street and both men worked it until other Americans came to their aid.

RIDERS MARRIED FIFTY YEARS

Captain Albert E. Rider and Mrs. Rider of 683 Central avenue, Albany, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home Tuesday without a formal gathering or dinner. Captain Rider is seventy-four years old. He was born in West Hurley October 1, 1844, son of Jacob and Martha Rider. Jacob Rider for many years ran a stage line between Kingston and Rondout and was later superintendent of the old horse car line, between the two villages, later consolidated into the city of Kingston.

After the death of his mother, when he was three years old, Captain Rider's father married again and the family moved to Kingston. Captain Rider received his education here and at the time the Civil War was declared, Captain Rider, then sixteen, was working in a dry goods store. He gave up his position and enlisted in "B" Company, 120th New York volunteers. Three wounds caused his honorable discharge October 8, 1864. The first wound was in the left foot at Gettysburg, July 3, 1863; the second, in the breast, at Virginia, May 24, 1864, and the third at Petersburg, in the right thigh. At the time of his discharge, Captain Rider was a second lieutenant, the youngest in the regiment. After the war he went to California, but soon returned to Kingston.

He married Miss Jeanette Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cook of Kingston, October 28, 1868. They moved to Albany where Captain Rider was employed by the Hudson River Steamboat Company. In 1836 he was made captain of the steamboat City of Hudson, running between Hudson and Albany.

Captain Rider and Mrs. Rider had four children, two of whom are living, Miss Jeanette Rider and George Cook. Mrs. Cook makes her home with her parents. George Cook, who lived with them also before the war, is in France with the 106th Infantry. Captain Rider has a half brother, John E. Rider, of Wall street, and a half sister, Mrs. Carrie Rider Winne, of the Hotel Stuyvesant, this city, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Marsh, of Jersey City.

KINGSTON, N. Y., OCT. 30, 1918.

"DIVIDED COUNCIL."

"No Government can be long secure without a formidable opposition," said the wise Disraeli. President Wilson thinks otherwise. He says that "this is no time for divided council." Yet the constitutions of the United States and of all other free countries insist absolutely upon division of governmental powers. The judicial, legislative and executive branches of the government are required to be independent of each other except in cases where it is specified that they act conjointly. For example, the President cannot make certain appointments without the concurrence of the Senate. He cannot make a treaty with a foreign nation without the agreement of two-thirds of the Senate. The founders of our nation thought this plan essential to the permanency of freedom and it has worked well for nearly a century and a half. It is plain to anybody who can think at all that if the Executive is permitted to tell the people just who they shall elect as Senators the purpose of the Constitution is thwarted and we have taken a long step toward despotism.

We can understand better what is going on if we read again the resolution introduced by Senator Lewis, one of the President's spokesmen. It runs:

Resolved, That the United States Senate approves whatever course may be taken by the President of the United States in the matter of his replies and in his dealings with the German Imperial Government and the Austrian Imperial Government and the allies of either or both, in response to the demand of either for peace or armistice.

That is about the most impudent proposition we ever heard of. The Senate formally to give up the powers which the people elected it to exert! It is part of the scheme to bunco the people into electing a House of Representatives consisting of putty men and rubber stamps. The idea is that we must confine our share in politics to paying taxes while Wilson does all our thinking for us.

This situation has all the appearance of a nightmare. It seems like a dream, but it is nevertheless very real and very dangerous. Let us all go to the polls, disregarding customary party affiliations, and by voting the Republican ticket from top to bottom show to the world that we are far from being such fools as to fight hard for liberty abroad and yet permit a super-Prussianism to be set up right under our noses.

THE AMENDMENT BALLOT.

Persons who go to vote next Tuesday will be handed by the clerks not only the regular ballot for officers, but a separate ballot containing proposed amendments to our State Constitution. A good many persons vote against all such amendments, on general principles, and frequently because of ignorance of the issues involved. We approve of doing nothing when in doubt, but we hope our readers will spend the few minutes required in considering what their duty is this year.

Amendment No. 1 provides in substance that hereafter bonds issued for public improvements, highways and the like, shall not run longer than the probable life of the improvement, and in no case over fifty years. It also provides for a more businesslike method of paying the bonds. It seems to us that the vote is sure to be unanimously "Yes" for this amendment. We can think of no possible argument in opposition.

Amendment No. 2 permits the construction of a new highway through the Adirondacks, making the region more available to tourists and campers. We are not in favor of the State spending money in new ways just now, but this amendment is only permissive, and leaves the question to future Legislatures. Our personal view is that the amendment should pass, but, unlike Amendment No. 1, there are two sides to the question.

Amendment No. 3 permits the State to sell a part of the abandoned Erie canal to the city of Utica. The State has no use for this property and can sell it for money. The trade will be a good one. There is no other side to this question.

Besides these amendments there is a "question" to be voted for on the same ballot. It provides that money which has been appropriated for highway purposes but which cannot be used in the county first designated may be expended elsewhere. A very sensible idea.

In England and France men of all parties have been called into the councils of Government. Fitness and efficiency have been the qualities chiefly considered in making appointments. In the United States this is not the case. All "Our Highest" appears to think that all Republicans are good for is to pay money into the war chest. The New York Sun has a most remarkable article giving the pedigrees of the various State Inspectors of Explosives. If there is any need of such inspectors at all it is obvious that they should be the best men obtainable, but the fact is that they seem to be nearly all incompetent hack politicians of the sort Bryan calls "deserving Democrats." No further comment is required upon this summary of the Sun's article:

Number of Inspectors of Explosives	48
Democratic Inspectors of Explosives	48
Appointed on Democratic recommendation (probably)	48
Democratic State and county committeemen appointed	10
Possible previous experience in handling explosives	3
No information as to experience	4
No previous experience in handling explosives	41

LITTLE LAUGHS.

Not an Athlete.

Two Irishmen who had been boys together in the same village, did not see each other for several years.

"You remember my brother, Michael," said Pat, "he's turned out a fine athlete, and has just won a gold medal for a hundred yard sprint."

"Good for him," replied Dennis, "but do you mind my Uncle Maguire at Ballyhently?"

Pat was not quite sure that he had ever heard of him.

"Well," resumed Dennis, "he's got gold medals for half a mile, five miles and ten miles; three silver cups for swimming, a marble clock for wrestling, two silver belts for boxing and a heap of prizes for cycling."

"Shure, he's champion athlete, indeed," said Pat, with enthusiasm.

"Not at all; not at all!" exclaimed Dennis. "He keeps the local pawnshop."—London Tit-Bits.

What Ruth Said.

Ruth, a carefully brought-up little girl of five years, returned from her first dinner away from home and was being questioned by her mother.

"And you were a good girl all the time?" asked mother.

"Yes, mother," was the joyful reply.

"And did you remember to say something nice to Mrs. Brown just before leaving?"

"Yes, indeed," Ruth answered, triumphantly. "I smiled and said, 'I enjoyed myself, Mrs. Brown; you had a lots better dinner than I thought you'd have."—The People's Home Journal.

Which kind are yours?

THERE are only two kinds of clothes, those that save and those that waste. If you buy wasteful clothes you are depriving the government of needed resources of material and labor.

If you want to save, insist on clothes of good quality; all-wool materials; reliable tailoring. One such suit can be made to do double service this year if you wear it carefully and keep it well pressed.

Our duty is to see that you get such clothes, and we know we can meet our obligations best by offering

DRUGGISTS !! PLEASE NOTE
VICK'S VAPORUB OVERSOLD
DUE TO PRESENT EPIDEMIC

Tremendous Demand Last Few Days Has Wiped Out Excess Stocks That We Had Estimated Would Last Until Next January---Last Week's Orders Called For One and Three-Quarter Million Jars---Today's Orders Alone Amount to 932,459 Jars.

Big Shipments Are En Route to Jobbers—Until These Arrive There May Be a Temporary Shortage, All Deals Postponed—Buy in Small Lots Only.

RETAILERS CAN GET IMMEDIATE SHIPMENTS DIRECT BY PARCEL POST.

This advertisement is written on Monday, October 21st. It is directed to the attention of all distributors of Vick's VapoRub, both wholesale and retail. In an emergency such as the present epidemic—our duty—and your duty—is to distribute Vapo Rub in the quickest possible manner to those sections stricken by influenza. We, therefore, call your careful attention to the following.

DANGER OF SHORTAGE IF SUPPLY IS NOT CONSERVED.

On October 1st we had on hand, at our factory and in twenty warehouses scattered over the country, sufficient VapoRub to last us, we thought, until January 1st, allowing for a 50 per cent increase over last year's sales, and not counting our daily output. This big excess stock had been accumulated during the summer months.

Then this epidemic of Spanish influenza hit us— and in the last ten days this stock has vanished. At first we thought this tremendous demand would last only a few days, but the orders have run:

Wednesday, Oct. 16, 18,504 Doz.
Thursday, Oct 17, 25,323 Doz.
Friday, Oct. 18, 39,256 Doz.
Saturday, Oct. 19, 45,833 Doz.
Monday, Oct. 21, 77,705 Doz.

Up to Saturday, October 19th, we have actually shipped for this month $400,284.10, or over two million jars of VapoRub.

THE PROBLEM NOW IS TO DISTRIBUTE VAPORUB QUICKLY.

Most of this tremendous quantity is still en route to the jobbers, but freight and express are both congested nowadays, and it may be some time before this supply reaches the jobbers. In the meantime, therefore, it is necessary that we distribute, as widely as possible, the stock that we are manufacturing daily, together with that now on the jobbers' and retailers' shelves, in order that it may get to the Influenza districts quickly. Our normal output is about 4,000 dozen per day. We are putting on a night shift, but it will be a little while before that is producing.

WHAT WE ASK THE WHOLESALE DRUGGISTS TO DO.

Last Saturday we notified all of our jobbers by special delivery as follows:

1st—Deals and quantity shipments of all kinds are cancelled. Fill no quantity orders of any kind, whether taken by our salesmen or by your own. Sell in small lots only.

2nd—Order from us in as small quantities as possible. If you are out we will try to ship a limited amount by parcel post or express, and pay the charges ourselves.

3rd—In order to make distribution still quicker, we will ship direct to your retail customers quantities not more than three (3) dozen 30c size at any one shipment.

4th—We are now out of the 60c size and will be for the next 10 days.

WHAT WE SHALL ASK THE RETAIL DRUGGIST TO DO.

Buy in as small quantities as possible. If you have any quantity orders, given the jobber's salesmen or given to our saesmen, don't bother about them—no need to write us—it is absolutely impossible to fill these orders at this time. If the jobbers in your territory are out of Vick's VapoRub, we will ship you by parcel post, prepaid, quantities not more than three (3) dozen 30c size in any one order. Naturally, we can't open accounts at this time, so your check or money order for this amount must accompany order. Don't write us stating to ship through your jobber, as we have to wait until we write this jobber and get his O. K. If you wish the goods to come through your jobber, have him order them for you.

SNOWED UNDER WITH CORRESPONDENCE.

Our force has already been "shot to pieces"—twenty-four of our men are wearing Uncle Sam's khaki—and this recent rush has simply buried us. All our sales force has been called in to help in the office and factory. We just mention this so you won't hold it against us if your wires and letters aren't answered promptly.

SPECIAL BOOKLETS ON SPANISH INFLUENZA.

We will send, on request, to any retail druggist, 100 or more little booklets, just issued, on Spanish Influenza, giving the latest information about this disease—its history—the symptoms—the treatment, and particularly the use of Vick's VapoRub as an external application to supplement the physician's treatment.

THE NEW WAYS TO USE VAPORUB.

In addition to the usual method of using VapoRub—that is, applied over the throat and chest covered with hot flannel cloths—our customers are writing us daily telling of their success in using VapoRub in other ways, particularly as a preventive. They melt a little in a spoon and inhale the vapors arising, or melt it in a benzoin steam kettle. Where the steam kettle is not available, VapoRub can be used in an ordinary tea kettle. Fill the tea kettle half full of boiling water, put in half a teaspoon of VapoRub from time to time—keep the kettle just slowly boiling and inhale the steam arising.

According to a bulletin just issued by the Public Health Service, Dr. Stiles, of this service, recommends that the nose be kept greased as a preventive measure against the influenza germs. For this purpose VapoRub is excellent.

WASHINGTON WANTS WORKERS.

Women, Especially, May Aid In Nation's Great Effort.

A new and very urgent appeal has just been received from Washington, D. C., in the form of a letter from the president of the civil service commission to the principal of Moran Business School, this city, which reads in part as follows:

"The need for stenographers and typists in the government offices at Washington, D. C., grows more acute daily, notwithstanding the great numbers that have been appointed. Literally thousands are wanted. The greatest need is for eligibles who are trained in both stenography and typewriting, but typists who are not stenographers are also in demand. Unusual effort has been made to obtain applicants, but the commission requests that even additional exertion be made in this direction. The need is most pressing.

"Eligibility may be obtained by passing only the practical tests in stenography and typewriting or in typewriting. The commission recommends, however, that the full examination, which includes, arithmetic, spelling, letter writing and penmanship, be taken, for the greatest demand is for eligibles who are competent in clerical work generally.

"It is perhaps unnecessary to say that an efficient civil service is as important as the armed forces in the prosecution of the war."

Inclosed with the above letter were copies of poster announcements of stenographer and typewriter examinations, and the commission requests that these examinations be brought to the attention of the public generally. Tests are given in 550 cities every Tuesday.

The government maintains a list of available rooms in private houses in Washington and is erecting residence halls to accommodate thousands. All are urged, as a patriotic duty to enter the government service for important war work as stenographers and typewriters. Women, especially, may thus aid in the nation's great effort. Men also are needed. Those who have not the required training are encouraged to undergo instruction at once. Full information may be obtained by telephoning to the Moran Business School, Burgevin Building.

Optimistic Thought.

A Wall of Resistance

Emphasis should be placed upon the conservation of strength and the building up of a strong wall of resistance against weakness.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

is used regularly by many, right through the winter, as a dependable means of conserving strength. For the delicate child or adult. Scott's offers rich nourishment with tonic-qualities that are great in their ability to strengthen the body and increase resistance.

The thing that the world is asking,
How far must he bend to break?
How much he can give doesn't matter,
But only how much can he take?

WHAT TO DO IN AN EMERGENCY.

There should be posted in a conspicuous place in every home a list of common remedies for injuries or accidents. Time means life in many an accident. Lives are being lost daily because of a lack of knowing what to do and acting quickly. "Wisdom is what to do next, skill is knowing how to do it, and virtue is doing it," says David Starr Jordan.

A patient who is struck by lightning should be treated to cold water applications on the head and given the same treatment one gives a drowning person, artificial respiration. The lungs must be filled with air to get them back to breathing.

For sunstroke, loosen the clothing, lay the patient in a cool, shady place and apply ice water to the head. Keep the head elevated.

For fainting, lay the patient on his back with the head lowered, allow fresh air to circulate freely around him and sprinkle with cold water. Do not administer water or any stimulant to an unconscious person, as the muscles of swallowing are inactive and strangulation might result.

Fire in one's clothing. Do not run—lie down and roll over in a rug or carpet, keeping the face protected.

Fire in a building. Drop on the hands and knees and cover the head with wet woolen if possible; then crawl out, as the air is purest near the floor.

Suffocation from illuminating gas. Get patient into fresh air, place on his back and give a teaspoonful of spirits of aromatic ammonia in a glass of water at frequent intervals. This is a safe heart stimulant at any time. Give two to four drops of nux vomica every five or six hours to the asphyxiated patient.

To stop bleeding. A handful of flour bound on the cut.

Antidote for poison. For acid poisoning, soda and milk; these are found in every home. Send for the doctor at once; do not wait to run any risks with life. Vinegar is taken for any such poison as lye. Oil's of all kinds are good. Mustard and water causes vomiting.

WHERE AND WHY THE MONEY GOES

Dear Friend:

This is the fore-runner of a series of letters to be sent every little while by the National Woman's Liberty Loan Committee. These will tell you something of how the vast sums of money appropriated for the prosecution of the war are being spent by the government.

The money we pay out and what we get for it is a fair statement of our war program and of our national achievement so far, and indicates definitely the magnitude of our undertaking, the giant scale of preparation and the standard we have set for ourselves in this grim struggle to preserve our national life and the civilization of the world. What we have done so far points to what is before us—what we must do week by week and month by month till the war is won.

In normal times—in peace times—it costs about a billion dollars a year to run the government. For the fiscal year ended June 30, 1918, congress appropriated in round numbers, including deficiences, $18,582,000,000. For 1919 congress has appropriated in round numbers at the present session, including deficiencies and appropriation bills pending, $24,330,000,000

The mind is often confused over "appropriations" and "expenditures." Congressional appropriations fix the limit of what may be used. Then the government departments and bureaus spend what is necessary, and at the end of the year the appropriation lapses. Official figures show that for the fiscal year 1918 the government spent $12,696,702,471.14, and in addition during the war months of 1917 disbursed $885,000,000 for loans to Allies.

Up to the very day we entered the war Germany believed that victory for the Central powers lay just ahead. A strong factor in this calculation was their belief that the Entente powers were financially exhausted.

Germany had spent fifty years preparing for a war of conquest. She knew that from its very start she must wage it from within the circle composed of herself and her Allies, that she must produce from within this circle her raw stuffs and manufactured material, and by doing this, though the war has continued far beyond the eighteen months that Germany set for its winning—if there was to be a winning—she has kept her money at home, used it over and over again, as the same water often turns the wheels of many mills.

Our Allies on the other hand, owing chiefly to their lack of preparation, had to come into the markets of the United States for most of their war necessaries, and in the years of our neutrality their account with us totaled approximately $9,453,524,347.

A nation and an individual are alike when they want to buy anything—they must have money or credit, which is based on money. Our Allies were short on both and we supplied their need. We advanced them money and credit, and we called the transaction a loan. In the fiscal years 1917 and 1918 we loaned them $5,623,000,000. Their securities and government undertakings to repay lie in the vaults of the treasury of the United States.

What our Allies did with that credit or money is of vast importance to us. They looked to us to supply them with wheat, corn and cotton from our fields, coal and ore from our mines, and finished products from our factories and foundries, otherwise they could not remain at war, so they brought this credit that we had lent them into our markets and spent it over our counters.

During the fiscal year 1918 our exports amounted to $6,000,000,000. Six billion is six thousand million. Most of these went to our Allies, and were turned immediately and eagerly into fighting stuff for winning their war—our war.

You will be interested in knowing some of the things our Allies really did with the sums we lent them. First they used over $150,000,000 for relief in Belgium and Servia. The people in Belgium call it "blessed money." Beside the enormous expenditures embraced in the term "munitions of war," they have spent $800,000 00 for cereals, $800,000,000 for meat and other foods, and $600,000,000 for cotton.

The letters immediately following this will tell the cost of turning a citizen into a soldier, of the draft, the soldier's life and training in the cantonments, his life overseas and the building of the ships that took him there, the engineering projects in France to make ready for the soldier's coming, our aircraft production, the wonderful Liberty motor, and kindred subjects.

Sincerely yours,
ANTOINETTE FUNK,
Director Propaganda and Speakers' Department.

SUITER SHOULD BE REELECTED

GEORGE SUITER.

George Suiter, who is the Republican candidate for the office of coroner, has demonstrated by his careful attention to his duties to be worthy of election again on November 5. He has been a resident of the town of Marlborough for many years and one of the most progressive citizens of Southern Ulster. He was elected coroner three years ago by a large majority and always was prompt to meet every call and investigate promptly each case brought to his attention with painstaking care. Mr. Suiter was a supervisor in 1910 and 1911 and the taxpayers of Marlborough know he looked after interests well. The lower portion of Ulster county is entitled to a coroner by reason of its long river front, its employing of an element, through necessity, in the fruit and berry season, when on occasions there are manslaughters committed, and because of its large population. Kingston has a coroner and there is no need for another one here, as Mr. Suiter's opponent resides in this city, and Coroner Kelly, who continues in office, has demonstrated that he is capable of looking after what cases may need investigation hereabouts. Voters will make no mistake when they vote for the re-election of George Suiter for coroner.

Frank L. Miller, 302½ Wall street, for barber pole. Granted.

R. L. Dulin, 560 Broadway, a combined cigar and stationery sign. Granted provided it is placed next to building and safely, securely and flatly fastened to building.

All May be Revoked.

All permits granted by the board are subject to revocation.

Sidewalk Ordinance.

It will be remembered that several months ago the common council adopted an ordinance prohibiting display of goods on the sidewalk. This ordinance is in force and no goods may be displayed without first securing a permit from the board of public works. Action on the permits given above has been delayed for some time.

To Build Sewers.

The board also passed an ordinance for the construction of a storm water sewer in Pine street from near the Wallkill Valley tracks to connection with the existing sewer on Wilbur road, and also for a sanitary sewer on Pine street from near Wallkill tracks to connection with existing sewer at Greenkill avenue.

The board then adjourned.

"Suicide by Inches"

THOUSANDS of people commit suicide by inches!

If one should take minute daily doses of some irritant or poisonous drug, no particular effect might be noticed until accumulation of the poison made its action evident.

Yet how many realize that irritant and poisonous substances are formed constantly, even in health, during food digestion and the preparation of its waste for elimination?

If the bowels act regularly and thoroughly, such dangerous matter is safely gotten rid of.

But if constipation exists, there results stagnation of intestinal waste, increased production of poisonous substances, and their absorption into the blood, which carries them all over the body.

The result is disease or disorder, which is neglected or allowed to continue, cripples or kills.

The victim of such self-poisoning commits suicide by inches.

Constipation is a bad habit. It is a sin against the body.

But there is an even worse habit, a crime against Nature, the taking of pills, castor oil, laxative mineral waters, and salts to "force the bowels to move." Because such drugs do not cure constipation. They make constipation a habit. They do not prevent "suicide by inches."

On the other hand, the Nujol Treatment not only overcomes constipation, but prevents stagnation and makes self-poisoning impossible.

Nujol is not a drug, does not act like any drug, it is absolutely harmless. Nujol helps Nature restore a healthy, daily, thorough, bowel evacuation.

Warning: NUJOL is sold only in sealed bottles bearing the Nujol Trade Mark. Insist on Nujol. You may suffer from substitutes.

GERMANS MUST FREE PRISONERS

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

London, Oct. 30.—The immediate and unconditional release of all prisoners of war in enemy countries, will be one of the Allied armistice terms, according to Sir George Cave, British home secretary. In an address before the house of commons he declared he had the best reasons for believing that the British government would insure this condition.

Sir George declared that the barbarous treatment of British prisoners of war is still going on today in some of the German camps. Since November, 1916, he declared, 2,000 prisoners of all Allied nations had died in enemy camps.

In case Germany does not reply favorably to this Allied demand, Sir George asserted, "we would be entitled to take reprisals (on German prisoners) within certain duly prescribed limits."

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, Oct. 30.—The entire stock market was unsettled at the opening today because of the shock which came to many as the result of the reduction of the United States Steel dividend and the poor showing of earnings made by the corporation for the September quarter. There was an enormous crowd of brokers in Steel Common at the opening and first sales were recorded at 12,000 shares from 105½ to 105⅝, a loss of 2½ points from yesterday's closing figure. Later this was followed by rallies to 106. There was a violent break in Mexican Petroleum to which attention was attracted by the action of the governors of the exchange to scrutinize recent operations in that stock. It showed a loss of 9½ points at the opening, selling at 150, with a rally to 156. Movements in other stocks were more orderly, the Steel shares declining one point, with moderate rallies after the first few minutes. The coppers were in good demand and fluctuated over a wide range in the early trading, Kennecott dropping 1¼ to 38⅜ with a quick rally to 39½. Marine Preferred opened down one point at 118 but rallied to 119. Southern Pacific was the strongest feature, opening down ⅛ at 101¼ and then advancing to 102⅝.

After the first quarter of an hour trading became more orderly, with the only large selling in Steel Common. That stock sold to 104⅞ but then rallied to 105⅜. Baldwin was without a market and dropped to 79½, while Bethlehem Steel B down to 68⅞. Southern Pacific was in demand above 102 and there was buying of Marine Preferred which moved up to 119. Industrial Alcohol dropped 2 points to 102¼.

The market was extremely weak in the afternoon, Steel Common dropping to 102⅜, a loss of over five points, while Baldwin fell to 77⅝ and Bethlehem to 68¼. The railroad stocks, after holding fairly well for some time, also joined the downward movement, Reading re-acting to 88½ and Southern Pacific to 100¼. American Smelting dropped from 87½ to 85¼ and Anaconda from 68½ to 67½. General Motors fell over four points to 125½. Mexican Petroleum dropped to 149, a loss of 10½ points, while Marine Preferred dropped to 116¼.

The market closed weak today; government bonds unchanged; railway and other bonds weak.

Germans Ordered to Hold On.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Paris, Oct. 30.—German troops have been ordered to hold on at all costs to enable the German diplomats to strike a peace bargain, if possible, according to news from the battle front today. The Germans are making the most stubborn resistance in spite of the important French advance west of Rethel which is imperiling anew the German lines of retreat eastward. The Austrian army has been unable to rally and reports this morning from Italy indicated that the offensive has spread.

OLD CHURCH RESTORED.

Repairs to Shawangunk Church Have Not Marred its Beauty.

Bruynswick, Oct. 30.—Judge Clearwater visited this place on Tuesday and looked over the restorations to the famous old Dutch Reformed Church on the hill. This edifice is regarded as one of the most picturesque in the United States, and is known to all architects and art lovers by the painting of it by E. L. Henry, noted Charleston, South Carolina, artist, who makes his summer home at Cragsmoor. The consistory have restored and repaired the unique outside stairway which leads to the slaves' gallery above the entrance doors, there being no other access to this gallery than the stairway. They have replaced the decayed woodwork and built a social hall on the church grounds sufficiently removed from the church edifice so that in event the hall should be destroyed by fire the church will not suffer. The beautiful and made wrought iron finial which surmounts the cupola, and which has been greatly admired by lovers of ancient metal work, has been fully restored. In the church yard beneath the tree said to be 150 years old, are buried the judge's great grandfather, great grandmother and a number of the members of his mother's family; in various parts of the church yard are buried many members of other old Ulster county families. The congregation is one of the most prosperous in southern Ulster, and the pastor of the church, the Rev. Sheldon Vanderburgh, never fails to draw a large and interested congregation of listeners.

MERCY MUNITIONS NEEDED IN TRENCHES

Lieut. Coningsby Dawson, Fighting Author, Makes Stirring Appeal for Y. W. C. A.

Lieut. Coningsby Dawson, who wrote "Carry On," says of the war work which the Y. W. C. A. is doing: "You at home cannot fight with your lives, but you can fight with your mercy. The Y. W. C. A. is offering you just this chance. It garrisons the women's support trenches, which lie behind the men's. It asks you to supply them with munitions of mercy that they may be passed on to us. We need such supplies badly. Give generously that we may the sooner defeat the Hun."

What Lieut. Dawson says of the Y. W. C. A. he might have said of all the national organizations which are coming together for the biggest financial campaign that organizations have ever headed. All the $170,500,000 to be raised by the seven great national organizations the week of November 11 will be used to garrison and supply the support trenches behind the lines. They are the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the National Catholic War Council, Jewish Welfare Board, American Library Association, War Camps Community Service and Salvation Army.

American girls in various uniforms mingle strangely with picturesque Brittany costumes in France. The American Y. W. C. A. has a hostess house in Brittany where the Signal Corps women live and a hut where the nurses spend their free time. Both these centers are fitted with many of the comforts and conveniences of home.

"At a tea given at the nurses' hut one Saturday afternoon," writes Miss Mabel Warner, of Salina, Kansas, Y. W. C. A. worker there, "there was an odd gathering—one admiral, a bishop, a Presbyterian minister, a Roman Catholic priest, a doctor, an ensign, one civilian and myself."

Preserving Spiders' Webs.

In order to preserve spiders' webs naturalists employ an ingenious method. The webs are first sprayed from an atomizer with a thin solution of artists' shellac, and then, should they be of the ordinary geometric form, they are pressed carefully against a glass plate, the supporting strands at the same time being severed. After the shellac solution has dried the plates carrying the webs can be stored away in a cabinet.

7,346 INFLUENZA CASES REPORTED

That is Actual Number Reported Up to 10 O'Clock This Morning to Health Board—Board Meets Today to Discuss Epidemic.

Up to 10 o'clock this morning 7,346 cases of grip, influenza and pneumonia had been reported to the health board This is the actual number of cases reported since the epidemic started in Kingston.

One of the local physicians has been so busy with his patients that he has had no time to report new cases, and this morning he reported to the health board that since October 15, he had had 259 new cases, making a total of 1,250 cases that he had cared for since the epidemic started.

The health board held a special session at 5 o'clock this afternoon after The Freeman had gone to press to discuss the epidemic situation in Kingston and to decide if the ban should be lifted as planned on Sunday.

Only one ambulance call was reported by police headquarters on Tuesday. This call was to convey Antoinette Charnell from the Home of the Holy Childhood to the Kingston City Hospital.

At the health board meeting this afternoon it was expected that every physician in Kingston would be asked to make a report of the actual number of cases they had attended up to the time of the meeting.

Poughkeepsie Police Rewarded.

As a token of their appreciation of the volunteer services rendered by ten patrolmen, one detective, one police chauffeur, and the policewoman, the police board of Poughkeepsie on Tuesday "decorated" each volunteer with one week's vacation with pay, to be taken between now and February 1.

Gentleness.

Gentleness is a good word to put under the shelter of courage, and a good thing to put among the preparations for the unknown year. It is no uncommon thing, in preparing for a journey, to include articles which, in fact, are never needed. They are brought home again unused, and sometimes spoiled. Now an absolute assurance may be given to anyone who requires it, that if this moral preparation and prerequisite for the journey of the year be taken, it will be needed, and it will be used, not alone on rare occasions, but more or less daily all the time.—A. Raleigh.

NO SLOWING UP IN OUR WAR WORK

While Germany is Believed to be Broken, no Chances Will Be Taken —Continued Hammering to be Kept Up.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Until Germany receives the armistice reply of the Allied governments and replies thereto the present uncertainty regarding the diplomatic developments of the war must continue. Officials, however, took occasion again today to call attention to the fact that there has not been, and will not be, the slightest slackening of the military endeavors of the United States and its Allies.

Troops will go overseas as fast as their transportation can be arranged. Munitions and supplies of all sorts will keep up a never-ending stream across the Atlantic. And the continual hammering of the Allied armies against the slowly weakening German lines will be increased from day to day. There will no granting of a respite to the armies of the kaiser until Germany acknowledges defeat.

Officials in directing attention to this fact today emphasized that it is impossibe as yet to tell what Germany will decide to do. The advices from London and Paris today, indicating that the guarantees to be demanded in consideration of an armistice wil be such as absolutely to disarm Germany, mean, in the opinion of officials here, that the German government—no matter whether it is nominally controlled by the people or still is dominated "by the military masters"—either must surrender unconditionally or resume her frantic efforts to check the onward rushing armies of Generalissimo Foch.

Therefore, there continues a wide divergence of views among officials here as to what to expect. Should the armistice terms be accompanied by a straight-out statement regarding peace terms it is believed here the situation will be much simplified. London advices today indicate that the armistice guarantee statements and an outline of peace terms are to go together. On this subject officials here are silent. They declare that this matter is being discussed at Versailles and that any statements regarding it should come from the supreme council there.

The declaration that the Allies are to demand the surrender of the German fleet and the occupation by the Allied forces of the Rhine fortifications and Metz-caused little surprise here. It has all along been assumed that the Allies would call for the surrender of all of the German submarines and would insist on occupation of strategical German positions. Therefore, if the demands go merely a step forward, and call for surrender of the entire German fleet it would be simply the carrying into effect of a very necessary precaution. The German fleet, bottled up as it is, behind Heligoland, is today a very serious menace to the peace of the world. Should it dash for the open seas it would, of course, be opposed by the great British fleet and its American adjuncts. But there are some very fast German battle cruisers in the fleet and if they could make their way through the blockade they could cause enormous losses before they could be rounded up.

Drastic demands on Germany will show her hand. If the military party prevails the demands will not be complied with. But if the peace party is in the saddle the demands of the Versailles conference will be adhered to. The struggle within the German empire plainly is a very bitter one. Officials here are not yet prepared to say whether it has not been cleverly staged manned in an endeavor to deceive the Allies. They say that this will be shown when the reply of the Allies is received and Germany reaches a decision thereon.

The Austrian outlook also is puzzling. In addressing a note directly to Secretary of State Lansing requesting him to intervene with President Wilson to secure an immediate armistice and the commencement of peace negotiations Count Andrassy, the new Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, has departed widely from the custom. Officials said today that this indicated, probably more than anything else, Austria's great need of peace. What action will be taken in the matter is for Mr. Lansing to decide. In the absence of any definite statement on the subject officials were inclined to believe that the Andrassy note, like the official Austrian communication, would be referred to Versailles for decision and would merely be acknowledged at this time.

There are a number of phases to the Austrian situation that puzzle officials here. Her declaration that she does not contemplate a separate peace and has not deserted Germany does not tally with the developments. However, it is very apparent from all of the information reaching here, through both official and diplomatic sources, that the complete break-up of Austria-Hungary is a certainty. The Slavs and Rumanians have refused to join the Magyars and there is utter chaos in every section of the dual monarchy. A strong Bolshevik movement is in evidence and whether the leaders will it or not Austria is practically in a state of revolution.
